AUGUST 9 CCC MEETING

One of the major pieces of business to come before CCC members on Wednesday, August 9 is the vote on the additions, printed below, to our By-laws. These two articles will enable the Club to fit within the government's definition of a "non-profit" organization.

Proposed additions to the Constitutions and By-laws of the Chicago Coin Club (as revised August 10, 1966)

Article I - Name and Object

Section 3. No part of the net earnings of the Club shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its members, officers or other private persons, except that the Club is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the objects set forth in Section 2 of this Article.

Article XI Dissolution

Section 1. In the event of dissolution of Chicago Coin Club, any and all assets remaining after all of its liabilities, incurred in accordance with this Constitution and By-laws, have been paid shall be distributed to the Numismatic Section of the Smithsonian Institution, of the Federal Government, in Washington, D. C.

In years past, the CCC, has enjoyed the classification as a non-profit organization, but when, two or three years ago, the government, in order to weed out such organizations who enjoyed such a status but were not worthy of it, reclassified organizations such as ours subject to reapplication. As a result, the Club was required to pay income taxes for income received during the last two years. The above amendments or revisions to our by-laws will assure us, it is felt, a non-profit status upon reapplication. We meet the requirements in all other respects. These revisions will eliminate technicalities not covered adequately in our present by-laws.

Our guest speaker for the evening will be Mr. William Pettit, who will talk on the 1st 1892 and 1st 1893 Columbian Half Dollars. Mr. Pettit's story is a very fascinating one, and we know that you will enjoy hearing it.

Our thanks to I. T. Kopicki, Harry Flower, George Petr, Sheldon Banoff, Glenn Smedley and Adalbert Birkholz for their very fine exhibits last month. The exhibits covered everything from famous July events to Trade Dollars, which backed up Al Birkholz's fine paper.

Our thanks also to Robert E. Counihan for so deftly handling our recent tax problems with such fine results!

COME TO THE AUGUST 9TH MEETING...IT'S IMPORTANT!

The Chicago Coin Club meets the second Wednesday of each month at 8 P.M. The November meeting will be held Wednesday, November 8, 1967, in the Plaza Room (2nd Floor south) of the Pick Congress Hotel, South Michigan Avenue at Congress.

NOVEMBER 8 MEETING

President Grebinger, at the October meeting of the Chicago Coin Club, named a nominating committee to select a slate of officers for 1968. Their nominations will be read at the November 8 meeting and elections will be held at the meeting in December.

A complete report on the PNG-CCC Show held Oct. 19-22 will be given. Attendance for this show was given as something less than 3,0000. Jim Budd, as chairman of exhibits, arranged for such fine attractions as the McDermott 1913 Liberty nickel, the 1794, 1802 and 1804 dollars and a 1792 1/2 disme. PNG dealers, from all parts of the country, were in attendance. The fact that the PNG plans another "Chicago Show" in 1968 testifies to the success of this event. Those CCC members who worked so hard to assure the show's success were feted to a sumptuous banquet on Sunday evening, the 22nd.

OCTOBER EXHIBITS:

ARLIE SLABAUGH, 36 shapes of tokens. STAN KRUSWICKI, Coins from Mad Magazine J. THOMAS NOLAN, Columbus Day exhibit. HARRY FLOWER, Israel Victory Coin. HOWARD EISENBERG, 2 Soviet medals. 1873 (Harry Boosel) Silver medal 2nd Anniversary of Chicago Fire, 1873; Rembrandt medal, 1873; 1st Charter National Bank Note of Vincennes, Indiana, 1873. PHIL MORE, P.N.G. -- C.C.C. Badge and a rare cent.

THIS 'N'THAT

The Illinois Numismatic Association will hold a show in LaSalle, Illinois on November 18 and 19. Complete with exhibits, auction, boarse, etc.

Along that line, the Oak Park Coin Club held its annual show at the O'Hare Inn the weekend of October 28-29. A very fine show with some excellent exhibits. Jim Plath, Jr. CCCer made off with Best of Show. There were other CCC exhibit winners, but we were thwarted in our efforts to learn their names.

Milwaukee held a fine show on Sunday of the same weekend, so numismatics around the Chicago area have been good even if the weather has not.

Now that proof sets are back for 1968...there is much speculation on the number that will be ordered. At $5 a copy and with S mint mark appearing for the first time, it's anybody's guess.

ATTEND THE MEETING - November 8!
